Eco Week was November 1 through November 7. It isn't just for pipe-smoking, sandal-wearing, Volvo-driving tree huggers anymore. Eco Week is supposed to remind us to keep our environment healthy. Our little sailing club always does its best to recycle bottles, cans and cardboard and keep things clean and green. Please turn the water off after washing your boats and sails. That way we don't waste water and we'll have a lower water bill.

We have a handicap parking space by the front door now. Legally we don't need one but it's a nice thing for our members who may have a little difficulty walking on the gravel.

The club bar now offers Jello shots. That's right. Jello for adults in Pina Colada rum, Orange vodka, and other flavors. Sally Lange the dockmaster dreamed these up. It's a fun, interesting dessert for $1.

Thanksgiving at the club

We're celebrating Thanksgiving Day at the UKSC! We will be serving turkey, roasted and deep fried, ham, stuffing, mashed potatoes, gravy, yams, cranberries, bread, and all the trimmings! We already have volunteers for many things so if you have a specialty let us know and we'll get you included in the fun!! Special desserts are always welcome and I hear the Pie Fairy (aka Commodore) may pay us a visit!! Dinner will be served at approximately 3 to 4 p.m. Another e-mail will follow with the exact time.

Lindi had a great idea to have a food donation box for the Burton food bank so please bring along something non perishable to give on Thanksgiving!

Along with that, Leah thinks it would be a great idea for you to reserve a table and decorate it in the traditional way your family did. So get your creative side going and we'll have the UKSC looking great!

We have about 40 signed up for the event so far so if you're interested contact Pat (p200ytl@terranova.net) or Sara (sarakahler@aol.com) via email to sign up.

Please sign up no later than November 13 so we know how much food to get and no one has to go hungry on Thanksgiving. We have to cover our costs and will be charging members $12.00 per adult and $6.00 for small children. Those who have already signed up only need to confirm the number in your group if you were unsure before.

We're looking forward to a great day and hope this will become another great UKSC tradition!!

from the fleet captain

Fall is here and the winds are up! This month gives us a little bit of a break in our schedule. The big regattas this month are the LUKI and the two-day Dockmasters. In addition to the "first off the dock" race, our Dockmasters have some special plans for us including the first annual cardboard boat race. I am sure it will result in more than one Facebook moment.

I am looking for helpers on a few projects, if any of you can lend a hand please let me know.

Clubhouse VHF antenna lead is broken.

Pontoon boat needs a bottom job.

Weather station replacement.

Install electric air horn on Signal boat.

Sunfish repairs.

The club is also searching for some offsite parking for our rarely used powerboat trailers.

Hope to see you at the club for Thanksgiving Dinner.

flail and sail 2010

Can't seem to buff up your brassie or put a shine on your spoon? You say you can no longer bedazzle us with your baffy or that you might confuse us with your cleek. If you are fastidious about your mid-mashie shot, then maybe your niblick's not a threat. Or does all this golf speak make you want to chuck your jigger or pitch your wedge?

What if your highfield lever isn't up to the task, or your barber isn't hauling quite right? If your headledge is hurting or your gudgeon is grounded? What if a Bombay runner has taken your bonded jacky? What if your canze iron is currently caught in a cringle?

What's a USKC bunny to do?

Join us on December 4th and 5th for the annual Flail and Sail, a day of collegial golfing in the Redlands (Saturday) followed by a day of friendly sailing on Buttonwood Sound (Sunday), punctuated by a delicious yet reasonable Saturday dinner at the Club. We'll be playing best shot in the golf matches, and all sailors can add their golf scores to their boat's corrected elapsed times to arrive at a winning low score. We especially hope to get all of our novice golfers out on the links to experience, first hand, one of life's most... most... uh, bracing sports.

To get the 2010 Flail and Sail up and running, we need sign-ups for the Saturday golf games and the delicious dinner planned for that evening. Once we have an idea of numbers, we'll get a set of Rules and Regulations out to all of you, so you can start practicing keeping your portion of the house behind the tee line in time for the bonspiel. Oops! That's from curling. Sorry. Heady stuff, this mix of turf and surf.

Reply to Bill Stanard (wstanard@palmertrinity.org) with the names of those whom you wish to enlist in the best ever Flail and Sail of 2010.

race committee

Welcome back to all of our seasonal members! It's not only nice having you around again, but a relief to have you rejoin race committee. During the months you are away we have a somewhat limited pool of volunteers. Thanks to your return some will get a much needed break. But they won't rest for long, the calendar is jam-packed with regattas at this time of year. We still need race committee volunteers for Dockmasters and Flail and Sail. Email one of us if you can help out with either of those regattas.

mark sorenson youth sailing program

Congratulations to the Mark Sorenson Youth Race Team! This was a very busy month for our racers, starting with a fundraiser bagging groceries at Winn Dixie over Columbus Day weekend. The following weekend was their first regatta of the season at River Romp in Ft. Meyers. With combined fleets of over 200 boats, our team did a fantastic job. Ben Althouse placed 1st in Green Fleet consisting of 88 boats! Our first time Green Fleet regatta sailors Ella Marsden, Emma Marsden, Caroline Althouse and Ethan Osborne all had great finishes. Red, White and Blue Fleet had 112 boats and our own Ryan Guth placed 29th in Blue! What a great way to begin the season. The Hank Gartner Costume Regatta followed on Saturday October 30th. This was a true regatta followed by fun races, capsizing and costume contest. Congratulations to Alex Ormundt for his first place finish in the costume contest. Thanks to race committee Karen Tone and judge, Ginette (Lord Nelson) Hughes. Our sailors will travel to Naples on November 13 for their next regatta.
